DEMAND FOR JURY TRIAL

1 Plaintiffs Seed Beauty, LLC (“Seed Beauty”) and BETA Beauty, LLC (“BETA Beauty”
2 and collectively with Seed Beauty as “Seed” or “Plaintiffs”) hereby complain and allege against
3 Defendants Coty, Inc., HFC Prestige Products, Inc. (together with Coty, Inc. “Coty”), and King
4 Kylie, LLC (“King Kylie”) (collectively with Coty as “Defendants”) (together with Seed as the 5 “Parties”) as follows:

6 SUMMARY OF THE CASE

7 1. This action is to stop Coty’s theft of Seed’s pioneering and proprietary digital-first
8 business model that has revolutionized the cosmetics industry. Seed’s unique business model 9 enables it to rapidly develop, manufacture, and promote new cosmetics through ecommerce and 10 social media platforms. Seed does this by maintaining, “total control of its manufacturing 11 process, working on everything from product development to marketing, all under one 12 roof.”¹ Seed is credited as the “beauty brand incubator” that is “responsible for much of”
13 Defendant King Kylie’s and KKW Beauty, LLC’s (“KKW”) success.² In fact, Seed Beauty
14 formulates, makes, packages, and ships all of King Kylie’s products.³ Other media reports have 15 commented that Seed’s quiet role in building these brands is the “secret sauce” behind these 16 brands. Seed’s tight control of these secret processes drives its ability to quickly release exciting 17 and groundbreaking new products in the digital cosmetics world.

18 2. Defendant Coty is a legacy beauty conglomerate failing in the marketplace. It has 19 demonstrated over and over that it is unable to compete through its own innovation. Coty has 20 seen five CEOs and dramatic stock price decline over the past five years and has admitted having 21 extraordinary difficulty reinventing itself to successfully compete in the new digital cosmetics 22 world.

23 3. Because it cannot win lawfully, Coty chose an unlawful path. It decided to steal
24 the secret sauce behind Seed. It sought deals with King Kylie and KKW in violation of the close

1 partnership with Seed. First, Coty made a $600 million investment in King Kylie, but it really 2 was a subterfuge to learn Seed's confidential business methodologies.

3 4. Out of deep respect for Kylie Jenner, Kim Kardashian, and the highly successful
4 businesses Seed created with them, Seed attempted to resolve this dispute privately and 5 repeatedly asked for assurances related to leakage of Seed proprietary information from King
6 Kylie to Coty. Coty and King Kylie consistently refused to provide any assurances. When Seed
7 got wind of a potential KKW transaction, it successfully sought and obtained an injunction
8 against KKW and those in active concert with KKW. Undeterred, Coty announced the deal
9 anyway, creating even more threat to Seed's trade secret rights. Coty has chosen to ignore the 10 Court order restricting the information it stole, and now it must be held accountable for its 11 unlawful actions.

12 THE PARTIES

13 5. Plaintiff Seed Beauty, LLC, is a California limited liability company, with its 14 principal place of business in Oxnard, California.

15 6. Plaintiff BETA Beauty, LLC is a California limited liability company, with its 16 principal place of business in Oxnard, California. BETA Beauty, LLC is a wholly-owned 17 subsidiary of Seed Beauty.

18 7. Upon information and belief, Defendant Coty, Inc., is a Delaware corporation, 19 with its principal place of business in New York, New York.

20 8. Upon information and belief, Defendant HFC Prestige Products, Inc., is a 21 Connecticut corporation, with its principal place of business in New York, New York.

22 9. Upon information and belief, Defendant King Kylie, LLC, is a Delaware limited
23 liability company, with its principal place of business in Woodland Hills, California. Upon 24 information and belief, Coty and Kylie Jenner, who is a citizen of the State of California, are the 25 only members of King Kylie.

26 10. The true names and capacities of the Defendants named herein as DOES 1 through 27 25, inclusive, are unknown to Seed at this time. Seed sues these Defendants by such fictitious
28 names. Seed will amend this Complaint to allege the true names and capacities of the fictitiously

1 named Defendants when Seed ascertains the identity of such Defendants. Seed is informed and 2 believes, and thereon alleges, that each and every one of these Defendants is responsible in some 3 manner for the threatened misappropriation of Seed's trade secrets which will damage and 4 irreparably harm Seed, and that Seed's inevitable injury, as alleged herein, will be proximately
5 caused by their threatened misappropriation.

6 JURISDICTION AND VENUE

7 11. This Court has subject matter jurisdiction over this action under Article VI,
8 Section 10 of the California Constitution, exercisable under Section 410.10 of the California Code
9 of Civil Procedure. This Court has jurisdiction over these claims as the relief sought may 10 properly be received from this Court.

11 12. This Court has personal jurisdiction over Defendants Coty and King Kylie because 12 they conduct business in California, including the formation or negotiation of contracts with 13 parties domiciled in California.

14 13. Venue is also proper in this Court pursuant to California Code of Civil Procedure 15 § 395.

16 14. Venue is also appropriate in this Court pursuant to [REDACTED]
17 [REDACTED], as all claims herein relate to either claims

1 FACTUAL ALLEGATIONS

2 A. Seed Beauty And Its Exclusive Relationships

3 15. Seed Beauty is a leading brand-incubator, developer, manufacturer, distributor,
4 and seller of beauty and cosmetics products.

5 16. Seed Beauty has a unique business model which allows it to incubate new brands
6 and products and swiftly bring them to market. For example, Seed Beauty's unique business 7 model enabled it to create, develop, manufacture, store, sell, and distribute products for multiple 8 direct-to-consumer brands all under one roof and bring products to market in record speed based 9 entirely on consumer demand and through its e-commerce strategy. This business model, 10 combined with the affordable, safe, and high-quality nature of Seed Beauty's products, has 11 skyrocketed young start-up brands to beauty and cosmetics sensations over a period of only a few 12 years.

13 17. One of Seed Beauty's most unique competencies is its vertical integration
14 capabilities. Seed Beauty employs hundreds of workers in Oxnard, California. These workers
15 manufacture and ship products direct to consumers. As one of the last beauty manufacturers left 16 in the United States, investing and protecting jobs in America, and especially in California, has 17 always been important to Seed Beauty.

18 18. Following the rapid and extraordinary success of its many brands, several different 19 celebrities expressed interest in partnering with Seed Beauty to create and/or develop beauty and 20 cosmetics brands using Seed Beauty's unique business model. To date, Seed Beauty has 21 incubated and grown numerous cosmetic lines. Seed Beauty's wildly successful brands include:
22 Kylie Cosmetics, KKW Beauty, and Tati Beauty.

23 B. Seed's [REDACTED] with King Kylie and KKW

24 19. On or around June 9, 2016, Seed Beauty entered into an [REDACTED] business product SKUs developed and owned by Seed Beauty. This business deal helped King Kylie enormously as media reports have in the past valued the company at over $1 billion in 2019.

26. Nearly one year after Seed Beauty began working on the Kylie Cosmetics brand, Kylie Jenner's older sister, Kim Kardashian, approached Seed Beauty to do the same with her beauty and cosmetics brand, which was operated through KKW.

C. Seed's Trade Secrets Arising from Seed's Relationships with King Kylie and KKW

29. Seed Beauty's business model, and the contracts related to its various product lines, are maintained as trade secrets by Seed Beauty. Most importantly, the exclusive deals between Seed Beauty and its partners are carefully maintained as trade secrets and are not shared with competitors. The structure of those partnerships, as well as the economic terms, are key differentiators under Seed Beauty's business model and are important to Seed Beauty's success. In fact, Seed Beauty's success depends in part on the protection of its trade secrets and other confidential information.

30. Because Seed Beauty's business includes full scale, one-stop-shop creative and logistical development services for young and/or start-up beauty brands, the details of Seed Beauty's relationships with its beauty brand partners necessarily includes the exchange of highly sensitive, confidential and trade secret information regarding these relationships (including key negotiated deal terms) as well as the operation of Seed Beauty and its business model.

31. Indeed, necessary to both [REDACTED] was the exchange of such confidential and trade secret information, including, but not limited to, non-public proprietary and confidential information pertaining to: (1) [REDACTED]

Secrets”).

32. Such confidential Trade Secrets are highly valuable to Seed Beauty in the course of conducting their business, because Seed Beauty derives economic value from the information not being made public, and any competitor who acquired such information would be given an unfair competitive advantage.

33. Specifically, the Seed Beauty Trade Secrets to which King Kylie and KKW had access are essential to Seed Beauty’s competitive position in the beauty and cosmetics industry.

34. The Seed Beauty Trade Secrets are not generally known in the beauty industry and could not be learned by others, if at all, without considerable expenditure of time, effort, or expenses. And Seed Beauty ensures that its exclusive beauty brand and cosmetic partners are subject to strict confidentiality and non-disclosure obligations.

37. In addition to requiring confidentiality in its agreements, Seed Beauty goes to great lengths and has taken reasonable measures to ensure that its confidential, proprietary, and trade secret information, including the Seed Beauty Trade Secrets, remain secret and confidential, including specifically prohibiting and preventing disclosure to the public and/or Seed Beauty's competitors who could, if privy to the Seed Beauty Trade Secrets, use this information to harm Seed Beauty's existing relationships, unfairly compete against Seed Beauty for other exclusive relationships in the beauty and cosmetics industry, and/or engage in any other anti-competitive behavior.

38. Such efforts by Seed Beauty to maintain the confidentiality of the Seed Beauty Trade Secrets, include, but are not limited to: (1) restricting access to the Seed Beauty Trade

1 Secrets, including at least by employing numerous mechanisms for securing its office, including 2 key card access at the office entrance, additional key card and code access, with further 3 restrictions, at the laboratory and development sites, and monitoring of the entire premises by 4 security personnel employed by the office complex, (2) ensuring that Seed Beauty's computer
5 network and systems are secure, including requiring passwords and other security verifications
6 for computer access where the Seed Beauty Trade Secrets may be stored, and limiting access to 7 electronic resources only to those employees who need to access them within the scope of their 8 employment, (3) including [REDACTED]
9 [REDACTED], and (4) to the extent any third-party must 10 access the Trade Secrets, [REDACTED]

11 Additionally, all Seed employees must sign non-disclosure agreements to ensure information,
12 including, but not limited to, the Seed Beauty Trade Secrets, is kept private and confidential.

13 39. Seed Beauty's competitive position would be gravely harmed if one of its 14 competitors were to gain access to the Seed Beauty Trade Secrets, as this would allow the 15 competing company to exploit many years' worth of highly valuable knowledge and knowhow
16 developed by Seed Beauty.

24 D. Coty and Its Acquisition of King Kylie

25 41. According to public filings, Coty considers itself to be one of the world's largest 26 beauty companies, which includes a "Consumer Beauty" segment "focused on color cosmetics, 27 retail hair coloring and styling products, body care and mass fragrances."⁴

28 ⁴ Form 10-K, Coty Inc., 2019 ("2019 Form 10-K"), available at <https://sec.report/Document/0001024305-19-000097/>.

1 42. Coty’s “Consumer Beauty division primarily sells products through hypermarkets,
2 supermarkets, drug stores and pharmacies, mid-tier department stores, traditional food and drug
3 retailers, and dedicated e-commerce retailers.”⁵

4 43. According to Coty, it is “continuously innovating to increase our sales by elevating
5 our digital presence, including e-commerce and digital, social media and influencer marketing.”⁶

6 44. In identifying the risks in connection with its business, Coty has stated that “[t]he 7 beauty industry is highly competitive” and that “[t]he color cosmetics category has been 8 influenced by entry by new competitors and smaller competitors that are fast to respond to trends
9 and engage with their customers through digital platforms . . .”⁷

10 45. Since Coty’s 2016 acquisition of Procter & Gamble’s beauty brands, like Clairol
11 and CoverGirl, Coty has indicated that it has faced continued difficulties in trying to integrate and 12 turn around these legacy brands. As Coty’s former Chief Executive Officer & Director, Pierre 13 Laubies, admitted in a July 1, 2019 investor call, “it is very true that the P&G Beauty merger has 14 led to value suppression and financial setbacks for Coty.”⁸

15 46. In particular, Coty’s business has been under considerable distress due to the 16 growth of digital platform business. In the last five years, Coty’s stock price has fallen
17 approximately 87%. On information and belief, Coty’s falling stock price is at least in part 18 attributable to its inability to evolve with the changing market. Peter Harf, Coty’s CEO, has 19 recently commented “in the last 5 years, we had 5 CEOs. I mean that shows that we lost our 20 way.”⁹

21 47. In fact, Coty expressly acknowledged that “[c]onsumer shopping preferences have 22 also shifted, and may continue to shift in the future, to distribution channels other than traditional 23 retail in which we have more limited experience, presence and development, such as direct sales

1 and e-commerce. If we are not successful in our efforts to expand distribution channels, including
2 growing our e-commerce activities, we will not be able to compete effectively.”¹⁰ Mr. Harf
3 commented in a June 1, 2020 call to analysts that “[w]e are in the process of creating a digital
4 platform, both social media and e-commerce across the brand portfolio of Coty. As you know, e-5 commerce at the moment is going to rule.”¹¹

6 48. Seed is a company, who, through its exclusive partnerships and confidential, trade
7 secrets, has managed to successfully compete in the color cosmetics industry through its unique
8 direct-to-consumer and e-commerce business model. It is this business model Coty seeks to 9 replicate. It would be one thing if Coty wanted to reinvent itself and compete fairly. But Coty
10 crossed the legal line when it decided to rebuild itself by stealing every aspect of Seed’s 11 pioneering business model.

12 49. In or around June 2019, media reports suggested that Coty was interested in 13 acquiring the Kylie Cosmetics brand through purchasing an equity interest in King Kylie. At or 14 around this time, John Nelson, Seed Beauty’s co-founder and CEO, notified King Kylie that it
15 was prohibited from [REDACTED] to Coty, a
16 main competitor to Seed Beauty. King Kylie refused to confirm or deny whether it had [REDACTED]
17 [REDACTED] to Coty.

18 50. On or around November 18, 2019, Coty publicly announced its intent to acquire 19 King Kylie in a strategic partnership with the company, which it claimed would, among other
20 things, “expand [Coty’s] presence in both premium cosmetics and skincare.”¹²

21 51. The public announcement and public information about the acquisition discussed
22 the transaction as follows:

6 52. Shortly after this announcement, on or around November 25, 2019, Seed caught
7 wind of the transaction, and sent letter correspondence to both King Kylie and Coty, expressing 8 its deep concerns with the transaction given Seed’s [REDACTED] arrangement with 9 King Kylie.

10 53. One of Seed’s primary concerns related to the sharing or disclosure of its highly 11 confidential and proprietary trade secrets that were necessarily disclosed within the context of the 12 Seed-King Kylie relationship. In its communications with King Kylie and Coty, Seed clearly
13 indicated that the details of the business arrangement between Seed and King Kylie [REDACTED]

15 such, Seed asked King Kylie to confirm that the [REDACTED]

17 54. In response, King Kylie still refused to confirm or deny whether it had already 18 disclosed the Seed Beauty Trade Secrets or any confidential details to Coty. King Kylie simply 19 stated that Seed’s concerns were unfounded and unwarranted, and Coty took no position on the 20 matter. Neither party confirmed that such information had not been disclosed.

21 55. Throughout the month to follow, Seed continued to seek assurances from King
22 Kylie and Coty that King Kylie did not disclose the Seed Beauty Trade Secrets or any 23 confidential details of the [REDACTED], but to no avail. As such, it remained 24 unclear whether confidential details of Seed’s and King Kylie’s relationship were or had been 25 fully disclosed to Coty by King Kylie. Seed Beauty requested that Coty not close the transaction

1 until this issue was resolved. Ignoring Seed's request, Coty and King Kylie closed the deal
2 anyway.

3 56. Despite Seed's numerous attempts to resolve the associated issues with the 4 transaction with King Kylie and Coty, it was nonetheless announced that the transaction had
5 closed on January 6, 2020. See https://www.Coty.com/in-the-news/press-release/Coty-and-kylie-
6 jenner-commence-strategic-partnership. As a result, HFC Prestige Products, Inc., a wholly
7 owned subsidiary of Coty, acquired 51% of the equity interests in King Kylie for a reported $600
8 million.²⁰

9 57. Following this announcement, John Nelson again notified King Kylie that it
10 remained [REDACTED] and King Kylie neither
11 confirmed nor denied whether it had already disclosed the Seed Beauty Trade Secrets to Coty.
12 Shortly thereafter, Coty announced it was appointing a Coty-selected CEO for King Kylie. At 13 this point in time, King Kylie announced that had appointed Cristoph Honnefelder as the CEO of 14 King Kylie. Mr. Honnefelder did not work for Coty prior to joining King Kylie and was hired as 15 an outsider. Mr. Honnefelder joined King Kylie on or about January 21, 2020. At this point in 16 time, Seed Beauty had not received any confirmation as to what information had been shared with 17 Coty despite its repeated requests. Seed has recently learned that Mr. Honnefelder is no longer
18 the CEO of King Kylie and, on information and belief, Coty is now controlling the company and 19 Mr. Harf's team is overseeing the operations of King Kylie.

20 E. Coty's Anticipated Acquisition of KKW and Seed's Lawsuit Against KKW Beauty

21 58. On or around June 3, 2020, just months after closing the deal with King Kylie,
22 various media outlets reported that Coty is currently pursuing a collaboration with KKW Beauty
23 regarding certain beauty products following statements by Coty in a public filing. See, e.g.,
24 https://www.bloomberg.com/news/articles/2020-06-03/Coty-in-talks-with-kim-kardashian-after-
25 kylie-jenner-deal. On information and belief, the "collaboration" reported in the press is actually 26 a majority-stake investment in KKW. Seed Beauty is also informed and believes that, in

27
28 ²⁰ Form 8-K, Coty Inc., January 6, 2019, available at <https://sec.report/Document/0001193125-20-002203/>.

1 connection with this anticipated transaction, representatives of Coty have requested certain
2 disclosures from KKW, including, but not limited to, requests for copies of material commercial
3 agreements and other categories of information that would include Seed Beauty Trade Secrets
4 relating to [REDACTED]
5 [REDACTED].

6 59. On information and belief, KKW is represented by the same counsel that 7 represented King Kylie in connection with its transaction with Coty.

8 60. Because of the previous failures to provide a clear answer related to the disclosure
9 of the [REDACTED] and because of the imminent discussions between KKW and 10 Coty, Seed Beauty became gravely concerned that KKW would disclose Seed Beauty Trade
11 Secrets to Coty unless KKW was enjoined from doing so by this Court.

12 61. Accordingly, Seed filed a related action against KKW in this Court on June 19, 13 2020 to prevent KKW's disclosure of the [REDACTED], and to preserve Seed's other 14 contractual and trade secret ownership rights (the "Seed-KKW Action").

15 62. In the same action, Seed filed an ex parte application for a temporary restraining 16 order on June 22, 2020 ("Seed-KKW TRO"), seeking to enjoin KKW and all those acting in 17 concert with it from directly or indirectly disclosing, misappropriating, or facilitating the 18 disclosure or misappropriation of, or sharing in any way any details related to the Seed-KKW
19 Beauty business relationship or arrangement with Coty.

20 63. Shortly after the filing of Seed-KKW TRO, Seed learned from KKW that it did, in 21 fact, disclose the [REDACTED] to Coty, without Seed's consent, along with a number of 22 other confidential documents containing trade secret and proprietary information, including

23 [REDACTED]
24 [REDACTED]
25 [REDACTED] , and [REDACTED]
26 [REDACTED]
27 [REDACTED].

64. In addition, given the discovery of the improper disclosures of trade secret information by KKW to Coty, Seed is informed and believes that similar improper use and disclosure of information was made by King Kylie to Coty. Indeed, during the KKW transaction discussions, KKW has admitted it shared highly confidential King Kylie information with Coty.

65. Recognizing the imminent threat of harm Seed was likely to sustain without injunctive relief, this Court granted Seed's request for a temporary restraining order to enjoin KKW and all those acting in concert with it from directly or indirectly disclosing, misappropriating, or facilitating the disclosure or misappropriation of, or sharing in any way any details related to the Seed-KKW Beauty business relationship or arrangement with Coty.

66. These details include, at a minimum, [REDACTED] the terms thereof, information about license use, marketing obligations, product launch and distribution, revenue sharing, intellectual property ownership, specifications, ingredients, formulas, plans and other information about Seed products.

FIRST CAUSE OF ACTION

Misappropriation of Trade Secrets in Violation of California Uniform Trade Secret Act, Cal. Civ. Code § 3426 *et seq.

(Against All Defendants)

67. Seed incorporates by reference each and every allegation contained in paragraphs 1 through 66 of this Complaint.

68. Seed has developed, maintained, owns and possesses the Seed Beauty Trade Secrets, which contain confidential, proprietary, and highly sensitive commercial trade secret information, as alleged and described above. This includes, but is not limited to, the details and terms of its business arrangements with its business partners, [REDACTED] and trade secret information necessarily learned or exchanged in [REDACTED]

, and

1 [REDACTED]
2 [REDACTED]
3 69. The Seed Beauty Trade Secrets are not generally known in the beauty industry or 4 outside of Seed Beauty and its exclusive beauty brand and cosmetic partners that are subject to 5 strict confidentiality and non-disclosure obligations.

6 70. The Seed Beauty Trade Secrets are highly valuable to Seed in the course of 7 conducting their business, because Seed derives great economic and commercial value from the 8 information not being made public or generally known, and any competitor who acquired such 9 information would be given an unfair competitive advantage.

10 71. Seed Beauty goes to great lengths and has taken reasonable measures to ensure 11 that its confidential, proprietary, and trade secret information, including the Seed Beauty Trade
12 Secrets, remain secret and confidential, [REDACTED]
13 [REDACTED] to the public and/or Seed Beauty's competitors who could, if privy to the Seed Beauty
14 Trade Secrets, use this information to harm Seed Beauty's existing relationships, unfairly
15 compete against Seed Beauty for other exclusive relationships in the beauty and cosmetics
16 industry, and/or engage in any other anti-competitive behavior.

17 72. Due to these security measures, Seed's confidential and proprietary trade secret
18 information is not readily ascertainable or otherwise made available to others in the cosmetics
19 industry—or any other industry—through any legitimate or proper means.

20 73. While King Kylie and KKW are in possession of certain Seed Beauty Trade
21 Secrets as necessary for the operation of the business partnership with Seed, [REDACTED]
22 [REDACTED] the Seed Beauty Trade Secrets to
23 any third parties, including especially Seed Beauty's competitors, such as Coty.

24 74. Nonetheless, Coty, acting in active concert with KKW, improperly acquired Seed
25 Beauty Trade Secrets through its contemplated acquisition and deal negotiations with KKW, 26 including, without limitation, the confidential [REDACTED], highly 27 sensitive proprietary and financial information, and other to trade secret information pertaining to 28 Seed's business arrangement with KKW.

1 75. On information and belief, Coty engaged in this same improper conduct during its
2 negotiations with and acquisition of Defendant King Kylie. On information and belief, Coty
3 requested and King Kylie unlawfully disclosed Seed Beauty Trade Secrets to Coty, including
4 without limitation, confidential trade secret information pertaining to the details of Seed's
5 business arrangement with King Kylie and highly sensitive proprietary and financial information.

6 76. Defendants Coty's and King Kylie's conduct constitutes misappropriation and 7 misuse of Seed's confidential and trade secret information in violation of CUTSA because, on 8 information and belief, Defendants improperly disclosed, acquired, and/or used the information
9 without Seed's consent.

10 77. Coty knew or should have known under the circumstances that the information
11 obtained from KKW and King Kylie consisted of confidential trade secrets and has not returned 12 the information improperly acquired from King Kylie or KKW. Upon information and belief, 13 Coty is retaining and using Seed's confidential and trade secret information.

14 78. As such, Coty has misappropriated, and a serious and imminent threat of 15 misappropriation continues to exist with respect to, the Seed Beauty Trade Secrets, including, on 16 information and belief, through Coty's reliance on trade secret information improperly collected
17 and analyzed during the acquisition of King Kylie and the anticipated acquisition of KKW and its 18 use of such information to increase its competitive position in the industry against Seed. Coty,
19 through its improper acquisition of Seed Beauty Trade Secrets, is poised to capitalize on Seed's
20 confidential and proprietary trade secret information and better understand Seed's unique 21 business model and partnership structure.

22 79. Given the foregoing, if Defendants are not enjoined, they will continue to 23 misappropriate and use Seed's trade secret information for their own benefit and to Seed's 24 detriment.

25 80. As a direct and proximate result of Defendants' wrongful conduct, Seed has 26 suffered, and if Defendants' conduct is not stopped, will continue to suffer severe and irreparable 27 competitive harm.

81. Seed seeks preliminary and permanent injunctive relief to recover and protect its confidential, proprietary, and trade secret information and to protect other legitimate business interests. Specifically, Seed seeks injunctive relief prohibiting Defendants from any further use, misappropriation, or disclosure of the Seed Beauty Trade Secrets, including without limitation the [REDACTED] and any information derived therefrom, to compel Coty to return all materials incorporating, disclosing, or derived from Seed Beauty Trade Secrets, and/or to prevent Defendants from further benefitting from their own wrongful conduct. Seed's business operates in a highly competitive market and will continue to suffer irreparable harm unless and until Coty is enjoined by order of this Court.

82. Seed has no adequate remedy at law for the present and threatened future injuries being caused by Defendants because it would be impossible to quantify their losses in monetary terms and because Defendants will continue to engage in their wrongful misappropriation and irreparably harm Seed unless and until enjoined from doing so.

83. The acts of misappropriation committed by Defendants were done willfully, maliciously, oppressively, and/or fraudulently with the deliberate intent to injure Seed's business and financially benefit Defendants' business, thereby entitling Seed to an award of exemplary damages in a sum to be proven at trial under Civ. Code § 3426.3.

SECOND CAUSE OF ACTION

Breach of Contract

(Against King Kylie)

84. Seed incorporates by reference each and every allegation contained in paragraphs 1 through 83 of this Complaint.

85. On June 9, 2016, Seed and King Kylie entered into as set forth above.

1 86. Since the [REDACTED], Seed has performed
2 and continues to perform all of its obligations [REDACTED] or obligations were excused,
3 and all conditions precedent to the performance of Seed [REDACTED] have occurred
4 and/or been satisfied.

5 87. Under the [REDACTED] King Kylie expressly agreed that it would

8 [REDACTED]

9 88. The [REDACTED] expressly prohibits King Kylie [REDACTED]
10 [REDACTED]
11 [REDACTED]
12 [REDACTED]

13 89. The parties [REDACTED]
14 [REDACTED]
15 [REDACTED]

16 90. On information and belief, King Kylie has breached [REDACTED] by, among 17 other things, partnering with Coty to develop or manufacture color cosmetics products outside of 18 the [REDACTED] in violation of [REDACTED].

19 91. On June 1, 2020, Coty issued a press release. In the release, Coty admitted that it
20 was working with King Kylie to develop new products in violation of the [REDACTED]
21 [REDACTED] Specifically, Coty listed as a risk factor the ability to gain “market acceptance of 22 new products, including new products related to Kylie Jenner’s existing beauty business, any 23 relaunched or rebranded products and the anticipated costs and discounting associated with such 24 launches and rebrands.”²¹

25 92. Further strengthening this belief, Seed is informed and believes that Coty, through 26 its employees, on June 10, 2020, placed a significant order of various different Kylie Cosmetics
27 [REDACTED]

28 ²¹ See <https://www.coty.com/in-the-news/press-release/coty-announces-strategic-transformation-and-definitive-agreement-kkr-wella>.

1 products, which Seed believes to be for the sole purpose of attempting to recreate those products.
2 This order was made from a French address and did not identify Coty as the recipient. However,
3 upon researching the address, Seed learned that the address belonged to Coty.

4 93. Seed is informed and believes, and thereupon alleges, that Coty has agreed with 5 King Kylie to develop new products in violation of the [REDACTED] using 6 confidential non-trade secret information covered by [REDACTED]
7 [REDACTED].

8 94. As a direct and proximate result of King Kylie's breach of [REDACTED] Seed 9 has been and continues to be irreparably harmed and has suffered damages in an amount to be 10 proven at trial.

11 95. King Kylie's breach of [REDACTED] was a substantial factor in causing Seed's 12 harm.

13 THIRD CAUSE OF ACTION

14 Intentional Interference with Contract

15 (Against Coty)

16 96. Seed incorporates by reference each and every allegation contained in paragraphs 17 1 through 29, 35-36, and 48-58 of this Complaint.

18 97. Seed is informed and believes that one of Coty's primary objectives in its 19 acquisition of King Kylie, and in its anticipated acquisition of KKW, is to grow and expand its 20 color cosmetics segment.

21 98. However, on information and belief, Coty was and is aware of the [REDACTED]
22 [REDACTED]
23 [REDACTED], as set forth above.

24 99. On information and belief, Coty nonetheless proceeded with the acquisition of 25 King Kylie despite its knowledge of the exclusivity requirements under the [REDACTED]
26 [REDACTED].

27 100. Now, on information and belief, Coty and King Kylie are presently working 28 together to develop and manufacture color cosmetic products in contravention of [REDACTED]

1 [REDACTED], by using the non-trade secret
2 but still confidential information covered by [REDACTED].

3 101. As set forth above, Seed entered into a business [REDACTED] with King Kylie whereby
4 Seed was [REDACTED]
5 [REDACTED].

6 102. On information and belief, Coty was aware of King Kylie's [REDACTED]
7 arrangement with Seed, including, but not limited to, [REDACTED]
8 [REDACTED] thereunder.

9 103. On information and belief, Coty induced King Kylie's contractual breach of its
10 [REDACTED]
11 [REDACTED].

12 104. Coty's intentional conduct has disrupted [REDACTED]
13 [REDACTED] and was a substantial factor in causing 14 harm to Seed.

15 105. Coty knew that disruption of performance was certain or substantially certain to 16 occur.

17 106. As a direct and proximate result of Coty's intentional conduct, Seed has suffered 18 and will continue to suffer irreparable harm and significant damages in an amount to be proven at 19 trial.

20 107. As a direct and proximate result of the conduct alleged herein, Coty will be 21 unjustly enriched in an amount to be proven at trial. For example, on information and belief, 22 Coty has been unjustly enriched by receiving business opportunities that rightly belong to Seed.

23 108. Coty performed the foregoing acts, conduct, and omissions fraudulently,
24 maliciously, and/or oppressively, with the intent and design to damage Seed. By reason of this 25 conduct, Seed is entitled to recover punitive damages in an amount to be determined at trial.

26 PRAYER FOR RELIEF

27 WHEREFORE, Plaintiffs Seed Beauty and BETA Beauty pray for the following relief:

28 A. Judgment in Plaintiffs' favor on the causes of action alleged herein;

1 B. Injunctive relief, including but not limited to:

- 2 i. a temporary restraining order and preliminary and permanent
3 injunction enjoining Coty from, among other activity, reviewing,
4 discussing, disclosing or misappropriating the Seed Beauty Trade
5 Secrets, including without limitation [REDACTED];
6 ii. a temporary restraining order and preliminary and permanent
7 injunction requiring Coty to certify through sworn affidavit that all 8 of the Seed Beauty Trade Secrets have been returned or 9 sequestered;
10 iii. a temporary restraining order and preliminary and permanent
11 injunction requiring Coty, through its counsel, to create a log 12 identifying Coty employees, agents, and contractors who were 13 privy to any information related to [REDACTED], the 14 information provided, and the circumstances relating to the 15 provision of such information; and 16 [REDACTED] a temporary restraining order and preliminary and permanent 17 injunction enjoining Coty from, among other activity, developing 18 color cosmetic products with King Kylie during the pendency of the
19 [REDACTED]

20 C. Damages in an amount to be proven at trial to the maximum amount
21 permitted by law;

22 D. Unjust enrichment in an amount to be proven at trial to the maximum 23 amount permitted by law;

24 E. A reasonable royalty from Coty and King Kylie in connection with the 25 Seed Beauty Trade Secrets to the maximum amount permitted by California Civil Code
26 section 3426.3(b);

27 F. Exemplary damages to the maximum amount permitted by California Civil 28 Code section 3426.3(c);

1 G. For attorneys' fees to the maximum amount permitted by California Civil 2 Code section 3426.4.

3 H. The seizure and return of Seed's trade secret information;

4 I. Costs of suit incurred herein, and attorneys' fees as allowed by law or 5 contract; and

6 J. Such other and further relief as this Court may deem just and proper.
